EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Instrument and does not purport to be a legal interpretation)

The Artist's Resale Right allows creators of original works of visual and plastic art, through a system of royalty payments, to benefit from resales of those works when they are sold through the professional art market.

These Regulations further amend the European Communities (Artist's Resale Right) Regulations 2006 and will better support creators of original works of visual and plastic art in claiming resale royalties arising from the resale of works sold through the professional art market.
