<sup>8</sup>Regarding the implementation of this article, see article 81 of the Law No. 5018 dated 10/12/2003.

<sup>9</sup>With Article 188 of the Law No. 6769 dated 22/12/2016, the phrase "Institute" in the first paragraph of this article was changed to "Institution" and the phrase "Institute" as "Institution".

business subject to cover the patent attorney or brand attorney activity, and the patent attorney or trademark attorney must be represented by real persons. Even if a real person attorney is a partner or employee of more than one legal entity attorney, he/she can use his/her power of attorney to represent only one legal entity attorney. Those who use their power of attorney in this way cannot act as a proxy as a real person. A real person attorney is jointly and severally liable to the person giving power of attorney together with the legal entity representative he/she represents, provided that personal criminal responsibility is reserved .

Patent attorney and trademark attorney exams are held every two years by the decision of the Board of Directors. Those who meet the conditions specified in subparagraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of the second paragraph are accepted to the exam.

The winners of the patent attorneyship or trademark attorneyship exams are required to register in the Patent Attorneys Registry to be able to act as patent attorneys, and to the Trademark Attorneys Registry to be able to act as trademark attorneys. The duration and amount of the professional liability insurance required for registration and renewal of registration is determined by the Board of Directors.

The procedures and principles regarding the examination and registration procedures related to patent attorneyship and trademark attorneyship, and other matters related to patent attorneyship and trademark attorneyship are regulated by a regulation.

Exam, document issuance, registration and registration renewal fees for patent attorneyship and trademark attorneyship are determined by the Authority.

Regarding the power of attorney, in cases where there is no provision in this Law, the provisions of the Turkish Code of Obligations dated 11/1/2011 and numbered 6098 shall apply.

Disciplinary penalties, acts to be penalized and disciplinary committee

Article 30/A- (Annex: 22/12/2016-6769/182 art. )

The disciplinary punishments written in this Law are applied to those who act and behave in violation of the professional rules of patent attorney and trademark attorneyship, which are prepared by the Institution after taking the opinion of the Union of Chambers and Commodity Exchanges of Türkiye and the agency with the highest number of members, and published on the official website of the Institution, and those who do not perform the duties required by attorneyship.

Disciplinary penalties to be given to patent attorneys and trademark attorneys and the acts and situations to which disciplinary punishment will be applied are as follows:

a) Warning: It is a written notification that more care should be taken in the execution of the attorneyship and in professional attitudes and behaviors. A warning penalty is imposed on deputies who behave and behave in violation of the professional rules.

b) Reprimand: It is a written notification of fault in the execution of the attorneyship and professional attitudes and behaviors. A reprimand is imposed on those who receive a warning but commit an act requiring the same penalty within two years, or fail to fulfill the obligations required by the attorneyship, or act as attorneys for parties whose interests are opposite in any transaction carried out before the Institution.

c) Temporary detention from acting as an attorney: It is prohibited from acting as an attorney for not less than three months and no more than one year. A temporary detention penalty is imposed on attorneys who receive a reprimand but commit the same penalty within five years, or who use the rights and powers of attorneyship with an example contrary to the original of the power of attorney, or who use the title, internet domain name or other means of promotion belonging to the Institution in a way that causes confusion. .

d) Removal from attorneyship: It is an indefinite ban from attorneyship activity. A penalty of dismissal from attorneyship is applied to those who are temporarily suspended from acting as attorneys and act within five years that require the same punishment.

If an investigation is not initiated within three months from the moment it is learned that the acts and conditions listed in the second paragraph have been committed, and if a disciplinary punishment is not given within two years from the date of committing the acts and conditions that require punishment, the authority to impose disciplinary punishment shall be time-barred.

Penalties within the scope of the second paragraph must be given within thirty days following the completion of the investigation.

No disciplinary punishment can be given to the attorneys without their defense. The attorney who fails to make his defense within the time period given by the investigator or on the specified date, not less than seven days, shall be deemed to have waived his right of defense.

Disciplinary penalties take effect from the date they are given and are applied immediately.

Administrative jurisdiction may be appealed against the decision to impose or not to impose a disciplinary penalty. Those who are dismissed from patent attorneyship or trademark attorneyship as a result of a finalized disciplinary decision cannot be a patent attorney or trademark attorney again.

Patent and Trademark Attorneys Disciplinary Board; It consists of a total of seven people, including one member from the Ministry, three members from the Institute, and three members from patent attorneys or trademark attorneys who have practiced their profession for at least five years and have not received one of the penalties specified in the second paragraph with a decision given by the Disciplinary Board. Alternate members are determined in the same number and on the same basis. All members are appointed by the Minister of Science, Industry and Technology. While the President of the Institution proposes the members to be selected among patent attorneys or trademark attorneys to the Ministry, he receives the opinion of the two chambers of commerce with the highest number of members and the two associations with the highest number of members.

The term of office of the members of the Disciplinary Board is three years. In the event that a lawsuit is filed against one of the members for a crime specified in subparagraph (d) of the second paragraph of Article 30, this member cannot attend the meetings until the end of the lawsuit and an alternate member is replaced. The member who cannot attend the meeting due to a valid excuse must notify the excuse before the meeting date. The membership of the member who does not attend two consecutive meetings without an excuse or loses his eligibility for being elected ends and an alternate member takes his place.

Procedures and principles regarding the Disciplinary Board, the procedure to be followed in the determination of acts that require disciplinary punishment and other matters related to discipline are regulated by a regulation.
